St. James's, April 26.

AN humble Addreſs of the Governour in Chief, and Lieutenant-General of His Majeſty's Leeward Caribbee Iſlands in America, and of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council, and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Antigua, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Thomas, Eſq; of that Iſland, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm, April 3, O. S. On the 29th paſt the States aſſembled, and the Nobility proceeded to the Queſtion whether the Diſpoſitions which the Committee for regulating the Officers Places had made, ſhould be confirmed, or not. After a long Debate it was carried in the Affirmative. On the 30th the Burghers and Peaſants declared, that they would very ſpeedily give in a Memorial with regard to that Affair of the Officers, reſerving to themſelves the Right of being heard upon a Point which concerned them as well as the Nobles. The Burghers and Peaſants have demanded Satisfaction for the Acts of Injuſtice which they ſay the Governours have committed in their reſpective Provinces. The Nobility would refer the Conſideration of that Affair to the Committee for Regulating the Affairs of the Dyet, but the other States will not ſubmit it to that Committee, as being compoſed of ſix or ſeven Governours of Provinces and other Nobles, who might act with Partiality when the Grievances ſhould be laid before them. And therefore the Burghers and Peaſants having proteſted againſt that Method, inſiſt that a Committee be expreſly appointed for the Examination of thoſe Grievances. On the 1ſt Inſtant Count Freytag came to Court, and was received very graciouſly by the King. It is not yet known for certain, whether his Majeſty will inſiſt upon Count Freytag's taking his Audience of Leave, or whether he will conſent to his ſtaying here.

Paris, May 1, N. S. On the 26th paſt, in the Afternoon, the King came on Horſeback to the outer Court of Verſailles, where were drawn up in two Square Batallions the Regiments of French and Swiſs Guards; which afterwards filed off before his Majeſty. The Duke of Grammont was at the Head of the French Guards, and the Duke of Maine with his Son the Prince of Dombes at the Head of the Swiſs. His Majeſty was accompanied by the Duke of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, the Count of Charolois, the Count of Clermont, the Prince of Conty, Mademoiſelles de Charolois and Rocheſuryon in riding Habits, and the Cardinal du Bois firſt Miniſter, all on Horſeback; ſeveral Perſons of Quality attending. The Marquiſs de Maulevrier Langeron, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Ambaſſadour at Madrid, is recalled, and another Perſon will ſoon be nominated to go with the ſame Character to that Court. The Duke of Maine is by a Declaration of the King which is to be regiſtred in Parliament, reſtored to the Honours and Privileges he formerly enjoyed, and particularly to that of entring into the Parliament in the ſame manner as a Prince of the Blood. The Count de Toulouſe being not reſtored to equal Privileges with the Duke of Maine, has preſented a Memorial to the King on that Subject. On the 20th Inſtant the Count de Vernon, Ambaſſadour in ordinary from the King of Sardinia, had a private Audience of Leave of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, in order to return to Turin. The ſame Day, Prince Kurakin in a private Audience of the King, made the Czar's Compliments to his Majeſty on his Majority.

Whitehall, April 23.

Whereas on the 14th Inſtant at Night, ſome Perſons did cut away and ſteal from the ſixth Moorings at Woolwich the Buoy-Rope of ſix Inches and an half and twelve Fathom, and likewiſe eight Fathom of eleven Inch Cable-laid Pendant; His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one concerned in the ſaid Robbery, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplices, ſo as they may be apprehended and proceeded againſt according to Law.

CARTERET.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty do hereby promiſe a Reward of Ten Pounds to the Perſon who ſhall make the ſaid Diſcovery.

Admiralty-Office, March 26, 1723.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleaſed to direct, That all ſuch Seamen, as are minuted to be received into the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, do attend their Lordſhips at this Office on Wedneſday the 1ſt of May next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.
